

The Sweet Spot – An Evening of Love Stories

"...Sweets with sweets war not," says the Bard. "Joy delights in joy..."

Why is it that some foods, like strawberries and chocolate, are such perfect companions for romance? Perhaps because there's a sweetness in them, surprising and delicious, that wakes up the senses and invites us to surrender in the very way we do when we fall in love. It's risky, but it's always worth it! We all have that sweet spot in us, ready to be touched by the memory and possibility of tenderness. Four Victoria storytellers (Peg Hasted, Jennifer Ferris, Faye Mogensen and Margo McLoughlin) will tell tales in celebration of the sweetness of love while we invite you to sample some richly sweet desserts!
