

JOIN THE GUARD OF HONOUR AT THE ROYAL ROADS MAST

For more than 50 years, the Royal Roads mast stood in front of Hatley Castle. Lowered when Royal Roads Military College closed in 1995, the mast has now been refurbished by the Navy at CFB Esquimalt and reinstalled in a new Memorial Plaza at the Vice Commandant's House at Royal Roads University.

Royal Roads University continues to offer granite pavingstones to be inscribed with the names of ex-cadets and former staff of Royal Roads Military College. These stones will pave the area within the granite walls surrounding the mast. They may be ordered for anyone who served at Royal Roads from 1940 to 1995.

All donations collected will go towards the RRU Military Heritage Fund.

When you support the Royal Roads Military Heritage Fund, you are investing in the preservation and appreciation of Royal Roads' naval and military history as exemplified by the restoration of the Mast, the Ship's Bell and the College Colours.
