Definition Key:

Delivery Mode (way in which the course is delivered to the student):

Blended indicates that some components of the course are online and some are on campus.

On-Campus, also known as Face to Face, indicates that course is taught on site at Royal Roads University.

Online, also known as Distance Learning (DL), indicates that the course is taken over the Internet.

On Location indicates that course is taught off campus at another location.

Pre-Res-DL indicates portion of course that takes place online prior to the Residency.

Post-Res-DL indicates portion of course that takes place online after the Residency.

Field Exploration indicates portion of course that takes place remotely in partnership with program relevant organization(s).

Residency vs Distance Row Headers:

Residency indicates courses or a period of time during which students are on site receiving instruction in person at Royal Roads University or at a partner institution such as those in France or Thailand. When followed by One, Two, Three or Four, indicates whether it is the first, second, third or fourth Residency period.

Pre-Res, or Pre-Residency, indicates courses that are being offered prior to the student attending Residency.

Distance indicates courses or a period of time during which students take their courses online (aka Distance Learning). When followed by One, Two, Three or Four, indicates whether it is the first, second, third or fourth Distance Learning period.

Blended indicates a period of time during which a course or courses are delivered in both a distance and residency format. When followed by One, Two, Three or Four, indicates whether it is the first, second, third or fourth Blended Learning period.
