

A MESSAGE FROM PREMIER JOHN HORGAN

As Premier of British Columbia, I extend my warmest greetings to everyone taking part in the Royal Roads University Fall 2021 Virtual Convocation Ceremony.

These ceremonies are an important way of connecting students with their loved ones as they celebrate reaching this exciting milestone. Successfully completing a post-secondary program is impressive at any time, and even more so with the additional challenges the past 2 years have presented. It is inspiring to see so many bright and promising British Columbians take this step toward fulfilling their goals, and each and every graduate can feel proud of the hard work and dedication that has led to this momentous achievement. A graduation represents both an ending and a beginning, and I invite you to take a moment to reflect on all that you have accomplished as you look forward to what lies ahead.

As you cross the finish line with a dynamic array of academic and vocational training, I have no doubt you will be well equipped to create the future you see for yourself, and I wish you all the best in your next adventure.

Congratulations to you all!
