1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

Royal Roads University (“university”) promotes an organizational culture of increased awareness and shared responsibility for an enterprise risk management program (“ERM program”) through purposeful collaboration and interaction with the university community. A university-wide perspective on risk is essential to understand the impact of risk events and to develop comprehensive and integrated approaches to control risks within acceptable levels.

Through an integrated approach, risk management is incorporated into the strategic, academic, and operational planning and decision-making processes in support of the university’s mandate, vision, and strategic priorities.

2.0 SCOPE

This policy extends to the university’s board members, employees, students, contractors, volunteers, and visitors and all academic, administrative, and research activities and operations undertaken by the university.

3.0 POLICY TERMS

- 3.1 The university maintains an ERM program that incorporates a consistent approach to risk management into its culture, vision and strategic and operational planning processes.
- 3.2 There are appropriate measures in place to address potential unfavourable impacts from risks as well as to be adequately positioned to take advantage of favourable benefits from opportunities.
- 3.3 The university will manage a transparent approach to risk through open and meaningful communication and monitoring of all key risks, promoting a culture of risk that seeks to evaluate and anticipate risk at the evaluation, planning and implementation stages of initiatives and projects.
- 3.4 ISO 31000: 2018 standards are applied by the university as the guideline for developing and maintaining its ERM program.
- 3.5 ERM supports the university’s informed decision-making to balance opportunity-seeking activities for creating value with appropriate risk management practices to ensure protection of that value and meet its strategic goals.

4.0 AUTHORITIES, ROLES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board of Governors (“Board”) is committed to ensuring that risks to the university’s strategic, academic, and operational planning and decision-making activities are systematically identified, assessed, addressed, recorded, and reported in an integrated enterprise-wide approach. To uphold this commitment, the Board directs that a consistent, proactive, and coordinated ERM program and framework be established and integrated into all university activities.

Members of the university community are responsible for supporting a risk aware culture at the university and the effective management of risk. Risk management ensures that risks are identified and managed within the university’s risk appetite.

4.1 Board of Governors/Finance and Audit Committee

4.1.1. The Board is responsible for the oversight and governance of the ERM program for the university and approving the university’s risk appetite statements.

4.1.2. The Finance and Audit Committee (“Committee”) is responsible for reviewing the university’s risk appetite statements, recommends improvements to the university’s overall approach to risk management, and approves risk management policies as part of the university’s risk management process.

4.2 Executive

4.2.1 The President, as delegated by the Board, has accountability for the management and implementation of the university’s ERM program.

4.2.2 The President and Vice-Presidents are accountable for promoting a risk-aware culture, supporting the integration of risk management into all university decision-making activities, and developing risk appetite statements and tolerance levels.

4.2.3 The Vice-President, Finance and Operations, as delegated by the President, leads the coordination of the university’s ERM program.

4.3 Vice-President, Finance and Operations

Administration of the ERM program, risk management policy and processes are delegated to the Vice-President, Finance and Operations, who will:

4.3.1 coordinate risk management activities and procedures;

4.3.2 monitor and report on risks and controls through periodic review of program activities and risk trends to determine necessary mitigation plans;

4.3.3 regularly report to the executive and board on ERM program activity; and

4.3.4 provide guidance and advice to those involved in the operational management of risk.

4.4 Academic and administrative managers are responsible for implementing good operational risk management practices and maintaining appropriate internal controls that support the effective management of risk.

5.0 DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this policy:

Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) means the application of risk management processes and practices across the university, at all levels from strategic planning to service delivery in both academic and operational programs.

Enterprise Risk Management Program (ERM Program) means the coordinated approach to be used by the university to identify, assess, respond to and monitor risks. Includes the methods and processes used by the university to manage risks and seize opportunities related to the achievement of its objectives.

Risk means the effect (positive or negative) of uncertainty on objectives as well as the chance or probability of loss (defined by the ISO 31000: 2018)

Risk appetite means the amount and type of risk that an organization is prepared to pursue, retain or take (defined by the ISO 31000: 2018)

Risk tolerance means the acceptable level of variation around a particular set of risk-based objectives

Risk management means the consistent, coordinated, structured and disciplined effort to understand and treat risk, reduce uncertainty and better meet or exceed goals and objectives.

6.0 INTERPRETATION

Questions of interpretation or application of this policy or its procedures will be referred to the Vice-President, Finance and Operations, whose decision is final.
