Applicants should have a minimum "B" average ("B-" for BHTM), or equivalent grade point average of 3.0 (2.67) when on a 4.33 scale, and at least 24 of the credits at a second-year level are required. Applicants for undergraduate programs must meet the program-specific admission requirements: Please visit the program website for more information.

	For tourism and hospitality program applicants: Business-related work experience is essential for consideration and acceptance into the program. Applicants with the appropriate post-secondary background will also have a minimum of 420 hours tourism/hospitality related experience (reviewed on a case-by-case basis). Graduate: Applicants for graduate programs must meet the program-specific admission requirements: Please visit the program website for more information.
Required Application Documents	1. Completed and signed application form 2. Proof of English Proficiency (if required) 3. Academic Transcripts (copy sent directly from applicant's home institution's international office) 4. Statement of Intent (1-2 pages), if applicable 5. Detailed Resume, if applicable 6. Letters of reference, if applicable
Statement of Intent	The Statement of Intent should consist of (but is not limited to) a 1-2-page essay, addressing the following four questions: • What influenced your decision to apply to Royal Roads University? • What do you hope to gain from your experience as an exchange student? • How do you hope to contribute to the program and to the university? • In what ways do you believe this student exchange experience will contribute to your future as a student and a professional?
Detailed Resume	Your detailed resume should include the following: • Education: List all post-secondary education, degrees, diplomas, and certificates you have achieved. • Training and professional development • Work Experience: Please include name of the organization, length of service (documenting hours per week worked to ensure a minimum of 420 hours business related experience) and a brief description of duties. • Voluntary / Unpaid Work Experience: List and describe any voluntary/unpaid post-secondary employment and/or community service experience. Please include the name of the organization, length of service, and a brief description of the position and duties. • Information Technology Training and Experience: Briefly describe your level of training and experience in the use of information technology, including computers, software and telecommunications networks as tools for business, education, teaching and personal use. • Professional Memberships and Affiliations • International experience: Please include any international or intercultural experience you have, in the form of travel, work, education, or volunteer experience.
Fees	Incoming exchange students are responsible for paying the following mandatory student ancillary fees while at RRU. The rates quoted are rounded estimates based on a four-month period and are subject to annual increases. • Student Services Fee $80.00 (Undergraduate), $105.00 (Graduate) • Learning Support Fee $73.00 (both Undergraduate and Graduate) • Student Association Fee $67.00 (both Undergraduate and Graduate) • UPASS 4 months $85 ($21.25/month - both Undergraduate and Graduate)

	*UPASS is not applicable for virtual exchange students
Letter of Acceptance (LOA)	The LOA will be sent by email; application processing time is approximately 4-6 weeks from the time that a completed application is received (including supporting documents).
COURSE INFORMATION
Language of Instruction	English
Course Restrictions	Incoming exchange students may only select courses being offered during the term/semester during which they intend to study at RRU (i.e. the course must start and finish during the term/semester during which the student is studying at RRU).
Standard Full-time Workload	In order to be considered a full-time student, students must complete a minimum of 9 credits within 24 weeks. A student enrolled in at least 60% of a normal course load is considered full-time.
Course Schedules	When completing the RRU exchange application, students must indicate which courses they wish to take during their time at RRU. Due to RRU's cohort learning model, exchange students may only choose courses from their selected program stream. For example, a student who has selected the Bachelor of Tourism and Hospitality Management - International Hotel Management stream may only select courses from the International Hotel Management stream schedule. Furthermore, they may only select courses that start and finish during the term(s) during which they intend to study at RRU. Course availability will be confirmed with the student once the official nomination by the home institution has been received.
Grading System	Please find detailed information on RRU grading scales here: https://www.royalroads.ca/academic-regulations/grading-scales
Transcript of Records	Official transcripts will be sent to the home institution within four weeks following the announcement of final grades.
PRE-ARRIVAL: THINGS TO CONSIDER
Housing Options	RRU currently offers limited on-campus housing. Please contact WelcomeDesk@RoyalRoads.ca for more information. Although students are responsible for organizing their own accommodation in Victoria, please visit off-campus housing website for more information. Our staff in the international office will make every effort to assist incoming exchange students when in doubt or if they need further information or recommendations. Many private options such as studio apartments, rooms, or entire houses are close to campus. Alternatively, students may wish to live closer to downtown and commute to campus by bus. Students who are interested in the option of living with a Homestay family can visit http://canadahomestaynetwork.ca/rru/ or https://gvenglish.com/royal-roads-homestay/ for further details.
Estimated Cost of Renting in Victoria	Depending on whether students rent a room or an entire apartment, rent prices in Victoria can range from $800/month to $1,900/month. A safe estimate for monthly rental of shared accommodation (including utilities) is CAD $1,000.
Where to Live?	Victoria is a smaller city and nothing is ever very far. Royal Roads University has two campuses located in Colwood and Langford, which is about a 20-30 minute drive from downtown Victoria, depending on traffic. Some neighbourhoods that provide easy access to the RRU campus: • Colwood • Langford • View Royal

	• Royal Bay If students prefer to live downtown Victoria or in a neighbourhood closer to downtown Victoria, please note that commuting times can run as long as one hour in each direction depending on traffic and number of bus transfers required. Some good neighbourhood options for students are as follows: • Burnside • Downtown • James Bay • Fairfield • Fernwood • Oak Bay • Quadra Village
Estimated Cost of Living in Victoria	Students can learn more about the cost of living here: https://www.royalroads.ca/current-students/student-life/cost-living https://studentaidbc.ca/help-centre/applying-loans/your-financial-need In general, students can expect to spend anywhere between CAD $500 and $1,000 a month on food, bills and entertainment, depending on lifestyle.
Visa Requirements	Depending on a student's country of origin and the duration of the exchange, incoming exchange students may require a visa to come to Canada. The easiest way to find out what immigration documents are required is by completing the Government of Canada's Come to Canada questionnaire. Please contact go.global@RoyalRoads.ca for assistance. Come to Canada Questionnaire: http://www.cic.gc.ca/ctc-vac/cometocanada.asp
Medical Insurance	It is very important for incoming exchange students to have medical insurance when they arrive in Canada. Students can purchase it with guard.me International Insurance at a cost of CAD $1.45/day. Whether you arrange your own insurance or register with gurd.me, students must provide confirmation of your enrolment to go.global@royalroads.ca before their arrival date.
RRU Buddy System for Incoming Exchange Students	All exchange students are offered the opportunity to be connected with a buddy (a current RRU student from their selected program) with whom they can connect over the months prior to their arrival in Victoria. To be connected with a buddy, please confirm by emailing go.global@RoyalRoads.ca.
